

Jason Roberts

Jason Roberts is a Senior IT consultant, and musician hailing from the Oak Cliff neighborhood of Ravinia Heights. Jason's work has been featured in Entertainment Weekly, the Pittsburgh Post Gazette, the Detroit Metro Times, and locally awarded in the Dallas Observer, and D Magazine's Best of Dallas series. Currently, Jason heads up the Oak Cliff Chamber of Commerce Alternate Transportation committee, which tasks him with coordinating a comprehensive multi-modal transit plan for the area.

Jason passionately leads grassroots efforts to support arts and urban renewal community programs. He is on the Board of Directors for the Oak Cliff Chamber of Commerce, The Texas Theater Foundation, and co-founded The Art Conspiracy, a Dallas-based collaborative uniting over 100 artists, musicians, and business leaders to fund local charities while promoting the arts. Jason is a member of the Congress for New Urbanism, attended the University of North Texas and is a Senior Technical Consultant for Tecmetrics.
