

The first entry

This is the first blog entry for the Oak Cliff Transit Authority. We plan on rolling out a lot of information in the future, so check back often for updates on our progress.

Special thanks to OCTA board member, David Jennings of Bauart Creative for programming this site, and for helping with our recent brochure.